

Baltimore-Town, March 25, 1770.
WHEREAS a certain John Bond, at Fell's Point, did, by an Advertisement in the Maryland Gazette, No. 1275, caution the Public against purchasing from me, the Subscriber, some Part of the following Tracts of Land, viz. Find me out, and Part of Montany's Neck, affixing, as a Reason, that Joseph Smith, deceased, had made him over my Bond for the Conveyance of Part of the above Lands. I do hereby assure the Public, the Land was not to be made over to Smith, until he paid Squire Carroll 125*l*. Sterling and the Damages thereon, which must be paid for a Protested Bill which I indorsed for him, and for which I am now under Execution. How did he get the Bond from Smith, when Smith was in Prison, and under Execution? He fraudulently, and by Promises, which he never performed, persuaded Smith out of it; and but a short Time before Smith's Death, he cautioned me not to make it over to Bond, as he never had received any Consideration. Besides, Smith, by his Last Will and Testament, bequeathed the said Lands to his Relations, and came to me to make them over, which I refused to do, as he had not secured me against Squire Carroll. Let any one who can show a Title to Smith's Estate, clear me as above mentioned, and I am ready and willing to make over the Lands. Thus the impartial Reader may see what an artful designing Person would do; but I flatter myself Mr. Bond is too well known, for his Tales, to gain any Credit. I advise all Persons not to purchase, occupy or use, any of the said Lands of John Bond, his Heirs or Assigns, for they may depend upon Actions being brought against them, after this public Notice.
